

Working in Berlin: We made it! Migrant women share their stories

September 2019 – June 2020

Working in Berlin:
We made it!
Migrant women share
their stories

Finding a job in Berlin that meets your own wishes and qualifications is a challenge - especially if you haven't been living in Germany for a long time. The Welcome Centre Berlin and eleven advice centres and migrant organisations organize a story circle. On six evenings, immigrant women share how they found their way into the Berlin Job market and how they overcame obstacles. Their stories inspire and encourage others who also want to start working in Berlin.

We look forward to your participation.

Please register via email under:
willkommenszentrum@intmig.berlin.de

The events are free of charge; snacks and drinks are provided.

Interpreters for different languages will be available to you. While registering, please indicate if and in which language you would like a translation.

By the way: men are also very welcome.
